Promises Kept...

From invitations to floral arrangements, from the first sip of champagne to the final dance on your wedding day, you will receive nothing less than perfection from the professional and experienced wedding staff at King's Garden Banquet Hall. Our on-site Wedding Specialists will oversee even the smallest details to ensure that your wedding dreams become a reality.

King's Garden Banquet Hall offers an intimate setting for that special day in your life. The reception space provides an extraordinary, unique and unrivaled sense of privacy and affords the perfect ambiance to complement your special event.

King's Garden Banquet Hall is proud to offer one of the most inclusive packages in the city. In addition to the various upgraded items that are offered in conjunction with the Wedding Package, you will also be working with a Professional Wedding Specialist, who will assist in the planning of your reception, as well as provide hands-on coordination on your special day.
